   b. Andrew Trinh: Bought a Disneyland annual pass
   c. Christian Walker: My wife is in the other room
   d. Marissa DeFalco: The Giants are going to the NLCS

VI. Public Input
   a. Robby Boparai: Here to let the Advocate General position is open. First and Transfer senator open. Also, your Warren senators are on point.
   b. Evelyn Nash: Warren Peer Mentorship Program. Mentor applications close tomorrow. Want more mentees, encourage them to apply, applications are easy and more of a “get to know you” so they can match you with a mentor.

VII. Special Presentations
   a. Acting Provost Ivan Evans – Welcome
      i. From department of sociology. Temporarily replacing Steve Adler while he is on sabbatical. Heard council is very active and large; proud to be associated with WCSC even for only a year. Eager to support council if need be in any way. The office of the provost does have some funds, so don’t be afraid to contact them.
      ii. Andrew: In the next 9 months of you being here, do you have anything you’d like to accomplish? Wants to come to council in a week or two to talk about collaboration. Honored to be a part of this council: a multicultural experience—such a diverse council. Happy to come to council with specific plans in mind.
Meeting Minutes

iv. Working with Engineers Without Borders. Working on irrigation machines, designed and built from scratch. Starting in Rwanda. Thrilled to be a part of the project.

b. Dean of Student Affairs Kafele Khalfani – Welcome
i. Serving as advisor from WCSC. Very much like Obi-wan Kenobi to Luke Skywalker. Here, present, but won’t hear from him often. Offers guidance occasionally. Won’t let us go off a cliff, but will let us go into a ditch—part of the learning experience. 8th college working at, attended 4 of those 8. Is from New York, NOT New Jersey. Was most recently in NY for two years, previously at Riverside for 5 years. UCSD is not socially dead: your concerts have a task force. This meeting has to end by 8pm, has to be home in time for “Scandal.” Prefers to be called Kafele, but you may have to call him Dr. Khalfani for a week if you’re still here when he gets his doctorate.
ii. Larry: What is your inner color? Orange, went to Syracuse. Wears a lot of orange.
iii. Has open office hours. One is on Monday, will be in CV on Tuesday from 5-6pm. Normally has OH on Friday, but not tomorrow.

c. Winter Chill – Edward Lin and Ankit Vyas
i. Trying to make a Winter quarter music festival
ii. January 31st, 2015: Friday after spirit night; 5pm-12am
iii. Want 39K for music talent, half of the Hullabaloo budget; 9K on security, 500 on trash, 25K on lighting, stage, and audio, 4K reach fork, iv. Total 41K, remaining 31K on talent
v. Sun God Lawn outside Muir
vi. Trying to get outside funding; waiting for approval from all six colleges vii. Jesslyn: Can you explain what you plan to do with the talent budget? Want a lot of lower-tier, student acts, and two headliners viii. Audrey: Where is the money coming from in college councils’ budgets? Suggested take it out of AS back-funding. Will probably come from Warren mandate reserves ix. Ryan: Can you go into details on structure? Committee with two reps from each college, and working with ASCE.
x. Luke: When does the decision need to be made? ASAP, hopefully by week 4 or 5. Want it finalized before the end of the quarter. Easier to get sponsors if it’s official.
xi. Jeffrey: Capacity? Sun God lawn isn’t that big and all six colleges are funding it? Not wristbands, but student ID required and fencing. Wanted to try to make it more open to see how many people would come out xii. Nishi: What if one college decides to not fund it? Try to get the money from somewhere else but would probably drop it.
xiii. Christian: Winter break is the hardest time to get agents to respond, would only give you about a month to plan. Might be better to plan for next year.
xiv. Want artist recommendations.
xv. Straw poll:
   1. good idea this year: 19
   2. no for this year: 0
   3. maybe some other time: 13
xvi. Daniel: What if one college didn’t fund it, would the event be held away from that respective college? Probably not, but every college’s reps are getting their input for the event this week.
xvii. Ryan: Is there any other purpose for this? Yes, trying to even out the quarter to break the stereotype of a dead winter quarter.

d.  AS Office of College Affairs – Travis Miller
   i.   AVP College Affairs. His office was created to promote collaboration between all college councils and AS. As an office, have weathered a lot of unhealthy talks which lead to back-funding—happened because someone spoke up. Reach out if we see something we don’t like, so it can get fixed. Know Your Councils yesterday and October 23rd, 10am-2pm. Common Application Fri, Oct 16th and the 24th. Trying to get all college councils to have a common application deadline so it can all be put online and put out to public. All Council Retreat November 2nd, 10:30am-2:30pm. Office also in charge of First Year Council. Encourage first years to apply, website currently redirects to WCSC app. Knows and appreciates what college councils do; office is there as a resource for you all.

VIII. Unfinished Business

   a.   Bylaws Updates from Rules Committee – Akinchita Kumar
      i.   Move to table to week 6: Akinchita Kumar
      ii.  Seconds: Akshay Tangutur
      iii. PBC

IX. New Business

   a.   Council Member of the Week
      i.   All of Events Board for working so hard over summer.

   b.   Special Appointments
      i.   Parliamentarian – Andrew Salemi
          1. Third year, comp sci major, pursuing interests in cog sci, phil, and student affairs. Community intern for ResLife; chairs CleRHCs.
          2. Ryan: Why are you qualified to be parliamentarian? Interested initially, served on rules committee. Studied Robert’s Rules of Order over the summer and a lot lately.
          3. Audrey: You’re very involved, would you have time to dedicate to exec? Doesn’t like to commit to things he doesn’t have time for, why he resigned from judicial board. Wouldn’t have come back if he didn’t think he had time for it.
          5. Joey: How will you ensure neutrality? Had training as a jboard member on how to remain neutral. Mental preparation and checking yourself is also a good practice.
          6. Akinchita: What is your inner color? Blue, but been told aura is blood orange.
          7. Trinh: What is your spirit animal? Koala
          8. Daniel: How do you plan to level playing field for those members of council that don’t understand Robert’s Rules as well? Make sure members understand, pause meeting to explain. Retreat: ideas for presentations and cheat sheet
          9. Move to approve Andrew Salemi as parliamentarian: Joey Giltner
          10. Seconds: Akinchita Kumar
          11. Object for questioning: Ryan Huyler
